

SLOPED ROOFS

SLATE ROOF (over fiberboard)

As sloped elements have been used light trusses made of galvanized steel profiles.

Over the trusses, waterproof fiberboards are screwed, and over them, slate tiles are nailed through galvanized steel hooks nailed on the fiberboards, keeping the overlap. There are a double layer of slate tiles on the eaves.