

CLADDING AND FALSE CEILINGS

CLADDINGS WITH ALUMINIUM STRIPS

Previous setting out, horizontal aluminum profiles have been fixed to the face, these profiles are used to allow that the strips to be placed.

The vertical joints of strips are coupled.

This system can form an air space between the cladding and the face. The air space can be used to add thermal insulation into the exterior.