

SEWAGE

BRICK SYPHONIC BOX

This is an element of an open sewage system, it is made over a concrete slab, with solid brick about 115 mm. thicknesses, interiorly rendering.

The reinforced concrete top is supported on the box walls. The exterior evacuation pipe is on an upper level than the entering pipe, making a syphon.